

PULL THE TRIGGER!

"When it comes right down to it, you are faced with one major decision in wrestling and life- Am I going to go all out OR am I going to hold back? Are you going to make it happen or are you going to sit back and hope it happens? I'm sure anyone reading this does not need to be convinced that the difference between champions in sports and life are the ones who make things happen. Champions pull the trigger."

List at least 5x you have taken a risk and seen some success OR times in general you have taken a risk with or without success. Preferably wrestling, not necessarily. Email this back to myrmidonwrestling@gmail.com
